

Assistant Librarian, Instructor; Interim Dean of Students

M.L.S., Sam Houston State University

B.S., College of Biblical Studies-Houston

A.A., Lone Star College

Bio

Professor Cobos has been serving at the College of Biblical Studies in various capacities for almost 20 years. She has a Master of Library Science degree from Sam Houston State University. Prior to graduating with a Master's degree, she obtained her undergraduate degree in Christian Leadership at the College of Biblical Studies-Houston. Professor Cobos also has some postgraduate course work from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

She brings over 15 years of experience working with adult learners teaching library literacy and research skills. Apart from co-teaching research and writing, she is currently also the Assistant Librarian at the College of Biblical Studies.

She is a current member of the American Library Association (ALA), the Texas Library Association, and the Association of Christian Librarians (ACL).

Professor Cobos has also served in various ministry areas throughout her life. She has served in children and youth ministries, prayer ministries, short-term missions, and worship ministries.

She and her husband Marlon enjoy traveling abroad, learning about other cultures and languages, and spending time with their precious nieces and nephews.

Professor Cobos has created a vimeo channel for students to address some of the most frequently asked questions at the library. Click the following link to view <https://vimeo.com/librarytutorials>.